Here's what we should learn from actors and movies, as per two spiritual icons

A few weeks ago, it created quite a buzz when glam icon and Bollywood diva Malaika Arora realized her 'biggest sin' during a podcast with revered spiritual mentor AiR-Atman in Ravi. When she was told that her biggest sin was considering herself a princess and that she should call herself a goddess, she understood what was amiss in her life. It was discussed in detail by the two as to how one would hold on to true happiness amidst the glitz and glamour of the tinsel town. The topic of Maya, actors and movies came up once again in the most recent podcast of AiR, featuring popular spiritual guide Jaya Kishori.

Now one might think as to why two spiritual icons would discuss movies? It was during the course of the conversation between the two spiritual icons when Jaya Kishori likened our lives to a movie where we are all playing characters and we need to do that well. AiR couldn't agree more as the spiritual icons termed this world as a stage where we are all but actors.

Jaya Kishori delved deeper into life and spoke about the similarities between our life and movies, "When you see a sad scene in a movie, you feel sad, you feel pleased when you see a happy scene, and you laugh when you see a funny scene. But since we all know it's just a movie and everything is fleeting, that emotional state can't last forever. It's crucial to know that life is a movie. We experience various emotions just like an actor who performs a part,

एक्टर्स से सीखना चाहिए, ऐसा महसूस करती हैं जया किशोरी

कई हफ्ते पहले, बॉलीवुड की ग्लैम आइकन और बॉलीवुड दीवा मलाइका अरोड़ा ने अपने आदर्श स्पिरिचुअल गुरु ए आई आर आत्मन इन रवीः के साथ पॉडकास्ट के दौरान अपना 'सबसे बड़ा पाप' की जानकारी पाकर आश्चर्य चिकत रह गई। उन्हें यह बताया गया था कि उनका सबसे बड़ा पाप यह है कि वह खुद को राजकुमारी समझती हैं जबिक उन्हें स्वयं को देवी कहना चाहिए। उनके इस कथन से मलाइका को अपनी जीवन में क्या कमी है, यह महसूस हुआ। यह बातचीत दोनों के बीच काफी देर तक और विस्तार से चर्चा हुई थी कि कैसे टिंसल टाउन की चमक और ग्लैमर के बीच सच्ची खुशी को खोंजा जाए। अब फिर से एक बार माया का टॉपिक तथा एक्टर्स और फिल्मों का विषय एक बार फिर AiR के सबसे हालिया पॉडकास्ट में आया. जिसमें प्रसिद्ध आध्यात्मिक मार्गदर्शक जया किशोरी

अब कोई यह सोच सकता है कि दो आध्यात्मिक और आदर्श कलाकारों द्वारा फिल्मों पर क्यों चर्चा हुई? इस विषय पर बातचीत के दौरान जया किशोरी ने अपना पक्ष पेश करते हुए कहा, हमारे जीवन को एक फिल्म के साथ तुलना करना चाहिए। जहां हम सभी एक पात्र हैं और हमें यह अच्छे से निभाना है। AiR आत्मन इन रवी ने इस संदर्भ में मान्यता दी कि यह दुनिया एक मंच है जहां हम सभी अभिनेता हैं।

जया किशोरी ने जीवन में और फिल्मों में समानताएं को लेकर दिलचस्पी से बातचीत की और कहा, जब आप एक फिल्म में एक दुखद सीन देखते हैं, तो आप उदासी महसूस करते हैं, एक खुशी वाले सीन देखते ही आप खुश हो जाते हैं और जब आप एक मजेदार सीन देखते हैं, तो आप हँसते हैं। लेकिन हम सभी जानते हैं कि यह सिर्फ एक फिल्म है और सब कुछ अस्थायी है, इसलिए इस भावनात्मक स्थिति की स्थिरता हमेशा नहीं रह सकती। जीवन को एक फिल्म के रूप में जानना महत्वपूर्ण है। हम एक अभिनय करने वाले की तरह विभिन्न भावनाएं अनुभव करते हैं, हँसते हैं, रोते हैं, और उस पल को जीते

इसके अलावा, उन्होंने कहा, इस मंच पर विभिन्न कलाकारों को विभिन्न भिमका निभाने के लिए तैयार किया गया है। लेकिन ध्यान दें कि जो कुछ हो रहा है, वह कल्पना है और यह वास्तविकता नहीं है। फिल्म के समाप्त होने के बाद, हमें अपने घर में वापस जाना

विस्तार से कहा, हम इसके गिरफ्त में फंसे हुए हैं। जया ने उत्तर दिया कि वर्तमान में हम जो कुछ भी कर रहे हैं वही माया है। अंततः हम भी नष्ट हो जाएँगे। हालांकि, इसका यह मतलब नहीं है कि हम अपने काम को सही ढंग से नहीं करेंगे। हम सभी को अपने काम पर ध्यान केंद्रित करने की जरूरत है, चाहे हम वक्ता हों, लेखक हों या प्रोफेशनल हों।

क्योंकि हम जीवन को माया के रूप में नहीं पहचानते हैं. इसलिए हम फंस जाते हैं। आप रोबोट बने बिना भी अपनी सभी भूमिकाएँ अच्छी तरह निभा सकते हैं। अलिप्त होने का मतलब यह नहीं है कि आप ऐसे वैराग्य में चले जाएं कि आपको दूसरों का दर्द महसूस न हो। हम पारिवारिक जीवन चन सकते हैं, हम जीवन जीते रहेंगे, हम अपना काम करते रहेंगे, हमारे रिश्ते होंगे, हमारा अपना परिवार होगा। लेकिन मन में यह जानना आवश्यक है कि यह वास्तविक सत्य नहीं है। अगर आप ऐसा सोच रखेंगे तो आप किसी भी कठिन

परिस्थिति का सामना करने पर निराश नहीं हो सकेंगे।" जीवन हमारे सामने आने वाली कठिनाइयों का सही समाधान खोजने के लिए है।

जया के पास सही समाधान था, "हम सबको पृष्टि के साथ, ऐसा समझना चाहिए कि जीवन में जो हो रहा है वो सब एक नाटक है, हमारी परीक्षा ली जा रही है। मेरी भूमिका का परीक्षण किया जा रहा है, मेरी अभिनय क्षमताओं का परीक्षण किया जा रहा है हम सभी जीवन के सबसे कठिन दौर से

इस चर्चा को रवी के आधिकारिक युट्युब चैनल पर AiR & Atman पर पूरी बातचीत देख सकते हैं।

The journey of self-discovery is what spirituality is all about spirituality, which takes us on a voyage, on a quest for the truth. We realise the truth of, 'Who am I?' Once we begin our spiritual quest, we slowly, step by step, through a series of realisations, awaken to the truth of our true self about God, life and this world. Inevitably, self-discovery is about transformation, evolution, spiritual growth, and a metamorphosis, culminating in enlightenment, Moksha, the ultimate goal of human life.

The Journey of Self-Discovery

The journey of self-discovery is what spir-L ituality is all about spirituality, which takes us on a voyage, on a quest for the truth. We realise the truth of, 'Who am I?' Once we begin our spiritual quest. we slowly, step by step, through a series of realisations, awaken to the truth of our true self about God, life and this world. Inevitably, self-discovery is about transformation, evolution, spiritual growth, and a metamorphosis, culminating in enlightenment, Moksha, the ultimate goal of human life.

Most of us live in the darkness of ignorance, oblivious to the reality and the truth. We think we are our name. We identify ourselves based on nationality, religion, and profession: I am John, I am an Indian, I am a doctor. But is this who we are? Did we arrive on earth stamped with a name on our forehead? We think we are the body, mind and ego. How can we the body? We were alive long before the body was formed. The body dies, burnt, destroyed, and everyone says, 'He has departed. He has moved on." Who has departed, gone, or moved on? Can we be the mind, then? Have you seen the mind? We have seen images or scans or pictures of our lungs, heart, kidneys, hands, and feet, but have we ever seen a picture of our mind? No, it doesn't even exist. The ego is a false identity. So, who are we? Neti Neti, not this, not this. Tat Twam Asi, that thou art.

Once we embark on a journey of self-discovery, we realise that we are not what we appear to be, who we see in the mirror every day. Not this, we are 'that' the Atman, Soul - A spark of a unique life. This is selfrealisation, which paves the way for God-Realization, for complete enlightenment. We realise that we are all a part of the Supreme Immortal Power, SIP, the power that we call God, that the Soul is God and that each of us, everything, is a manifestation of this power.

Self-discovery leads to spiritual growth and enlightenment. We are enlightened with the truth. The darkness of ignorance within us is swept away. Just as we do away with myths, lies and superstitions. As we realise our true self and our inherent Divinity, we transcend the body, mind and ego. Our desires disappear, as do negative and toxic emotions. We live with love, compassion, courage, faith, hope, acceptance and surrender. We no longer seek material nothing, no one belongs to us. We no longer seek to be a part of the rat race. We start living with detachment realising the transient nature of relationships. Because we realise, we are all one, we are all the Soul; we love everybody. We overcome the triple suffering - the body's pain, the mind's misery and the ego's agony. We start living in a state of Consciousness or thoughtlessness where the intellect shines. We realise that life unfolds as per our Karma, Hence, we rejoice when confronted with challenging circumstances in life. We realise that our Karma is being negated-our paradigm of life changes. We realise that this world is Mithya, an illusion, a drama. And therefore, we don't experience any sorrow, any trauma. The only truth is God, Prabhu Satva, God is not a person or a saint but a Power that is omnipotent, omniscient, and omnipresent. God is birthless and deathless, beginningless and endless. The ultimate purpose of human birth is to become one with God, to be liberated from the Karmic cycle of death and birth. What begins as a journey of self-discovery, 'Who am I?' is actually what the journey of life is about - Enlightenment. Life is not meant for us to accumulate wealth, achievements, and success but to be enlightened and liberated.

The spiritual path of personal growth and integrating wisdom into everyday life

🧖 Rishika Khanna • Updated: 15 days ago • Follow

The spiritual path is a route of change, eventually, metamorphosis, as well as a path of selfdiscovery for personal growth and evolution. It takes us to our ultimate goal of enlightenment, liberation, and moksha. As we grasp the truth on the spiritual journey, we recognise that we are the soul, a spark of unique life and not the body, mind, or ego. We are a part of God, the supreme immortal power and the fact that God is everywhere and in everything, we comprehend.

Hence, the spiritual wisdom we attain from our realisations as we move ahead on the spiritual path changes our paradigm of life. It changes our perspective, our relationships, the way we live and speak and all this is for the best. It leads us to everlasting peace, divine love and eternal happiness.

When we talk about taking the spiritual path, we mean the path that is less travelled. It all begins with a quest, a search for the truth for answers. It is driven by an intense love and yearning for the Divine, the supreme immortal power. We begin by asking, "Who am I"?, "Why am I born?", "Who is God?", "Where is God?' and then we investigate our findings and finally, we realize the truth. The spiritual path is beyond religion. Religion is only a kindergarten. It is a spirituality that reveals the truth.
